Call for Master's Level Counselling Practicum Students

Momenta and Many Stories Therapy are launching a low-cost, community-based counselling program in Manitoba and we're inviting master's-level counselling students to join us as practicum clinicians.

This is a unique opportunity to develop your clinical skills while contributing to accessible, social justice-oriented counselling.

About the Practicum

Students will provide counselling to individuals (16+), families, and groups in in-person, virtual, and outdoor settings. The program is grounded in narrative, adventure, feminist, and relationship-based approaches, with a strong emphasis on:

- Anti-oppressive and decolonizing practices
- Social justice
- Ethical, reflective, and collaborative counselling

What You'll Gain

- Direct client experience in a supportive, low-cost program
- Ongoing mentorship and clinical supervision
- Training in narrative and adventure therapy approaches
- Opportunities to practice in diverse and creative therapeutic settings
- Experience working within a social justice-oriented framework

Supervision & Support

You will be supervised by experienced clinicians:

Lise Brown, MSW, RSW and Candace Neufeld, MSW, RSW, each with 20+ years of practice.

Who This Is For

We welcome students who are:

- Currently enrolled in a master's-level counselling or social work program
- Interested in community-based, accessible mental health care
- Curious about decolonizing and anti-oppressive therapeutic practices

- Open to experiential and relational approaches to counselling

How to Apply

Please email your cover letter (including your current academic program) and resume to:
